All other terms and provisions of said Contract for Electric Service, as amended by previous amendments, if any, remain unchanged and said Contract remains in full force and effect.

The Customer shall furnish, without cost to the Company, a suitable site on its premises at each plant location listed in Part I for the Company's transmission lines, substations, and/or distribution facilities as may be required to provide such service to said premises. If, during the term hereof, the Customer's use of said premises makes necessary the relocation of said facilities, from the site presently furnished, to another site on said premises, the Company shall relocate the same at the Customer's request, and the Customer shall reimburse the Company for the cost thereby incurred. The Company, its agents, employees, and authorized contractors shall have full right and authority of ingress and egress at all times on and across said premises of the Customer, for the purpose of constructing, operating, maintaining, replacing, repairing, moving and removing its said facilities. Said right of ingress and egress, however, shall not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Customer's said premises.

This Agreement may be executed and delivered in counterparts, including by a facsimile or an electronic transmission thereof, each of which shall be deemed an original. Any document generated by the parties with respect to this Agreement, including this Agreement, may be imaged and stored electronically and introduced as evidence in any proceeding as if original business records. Neither party will object to the admissibility of such images as evidence in any proceeding on account of having been stored electronically.
